Basic principals of CDM

A group of people who represent different aspects of an issue, working together to explore their differences and come up with solutions that couldn't be achieved on their own.

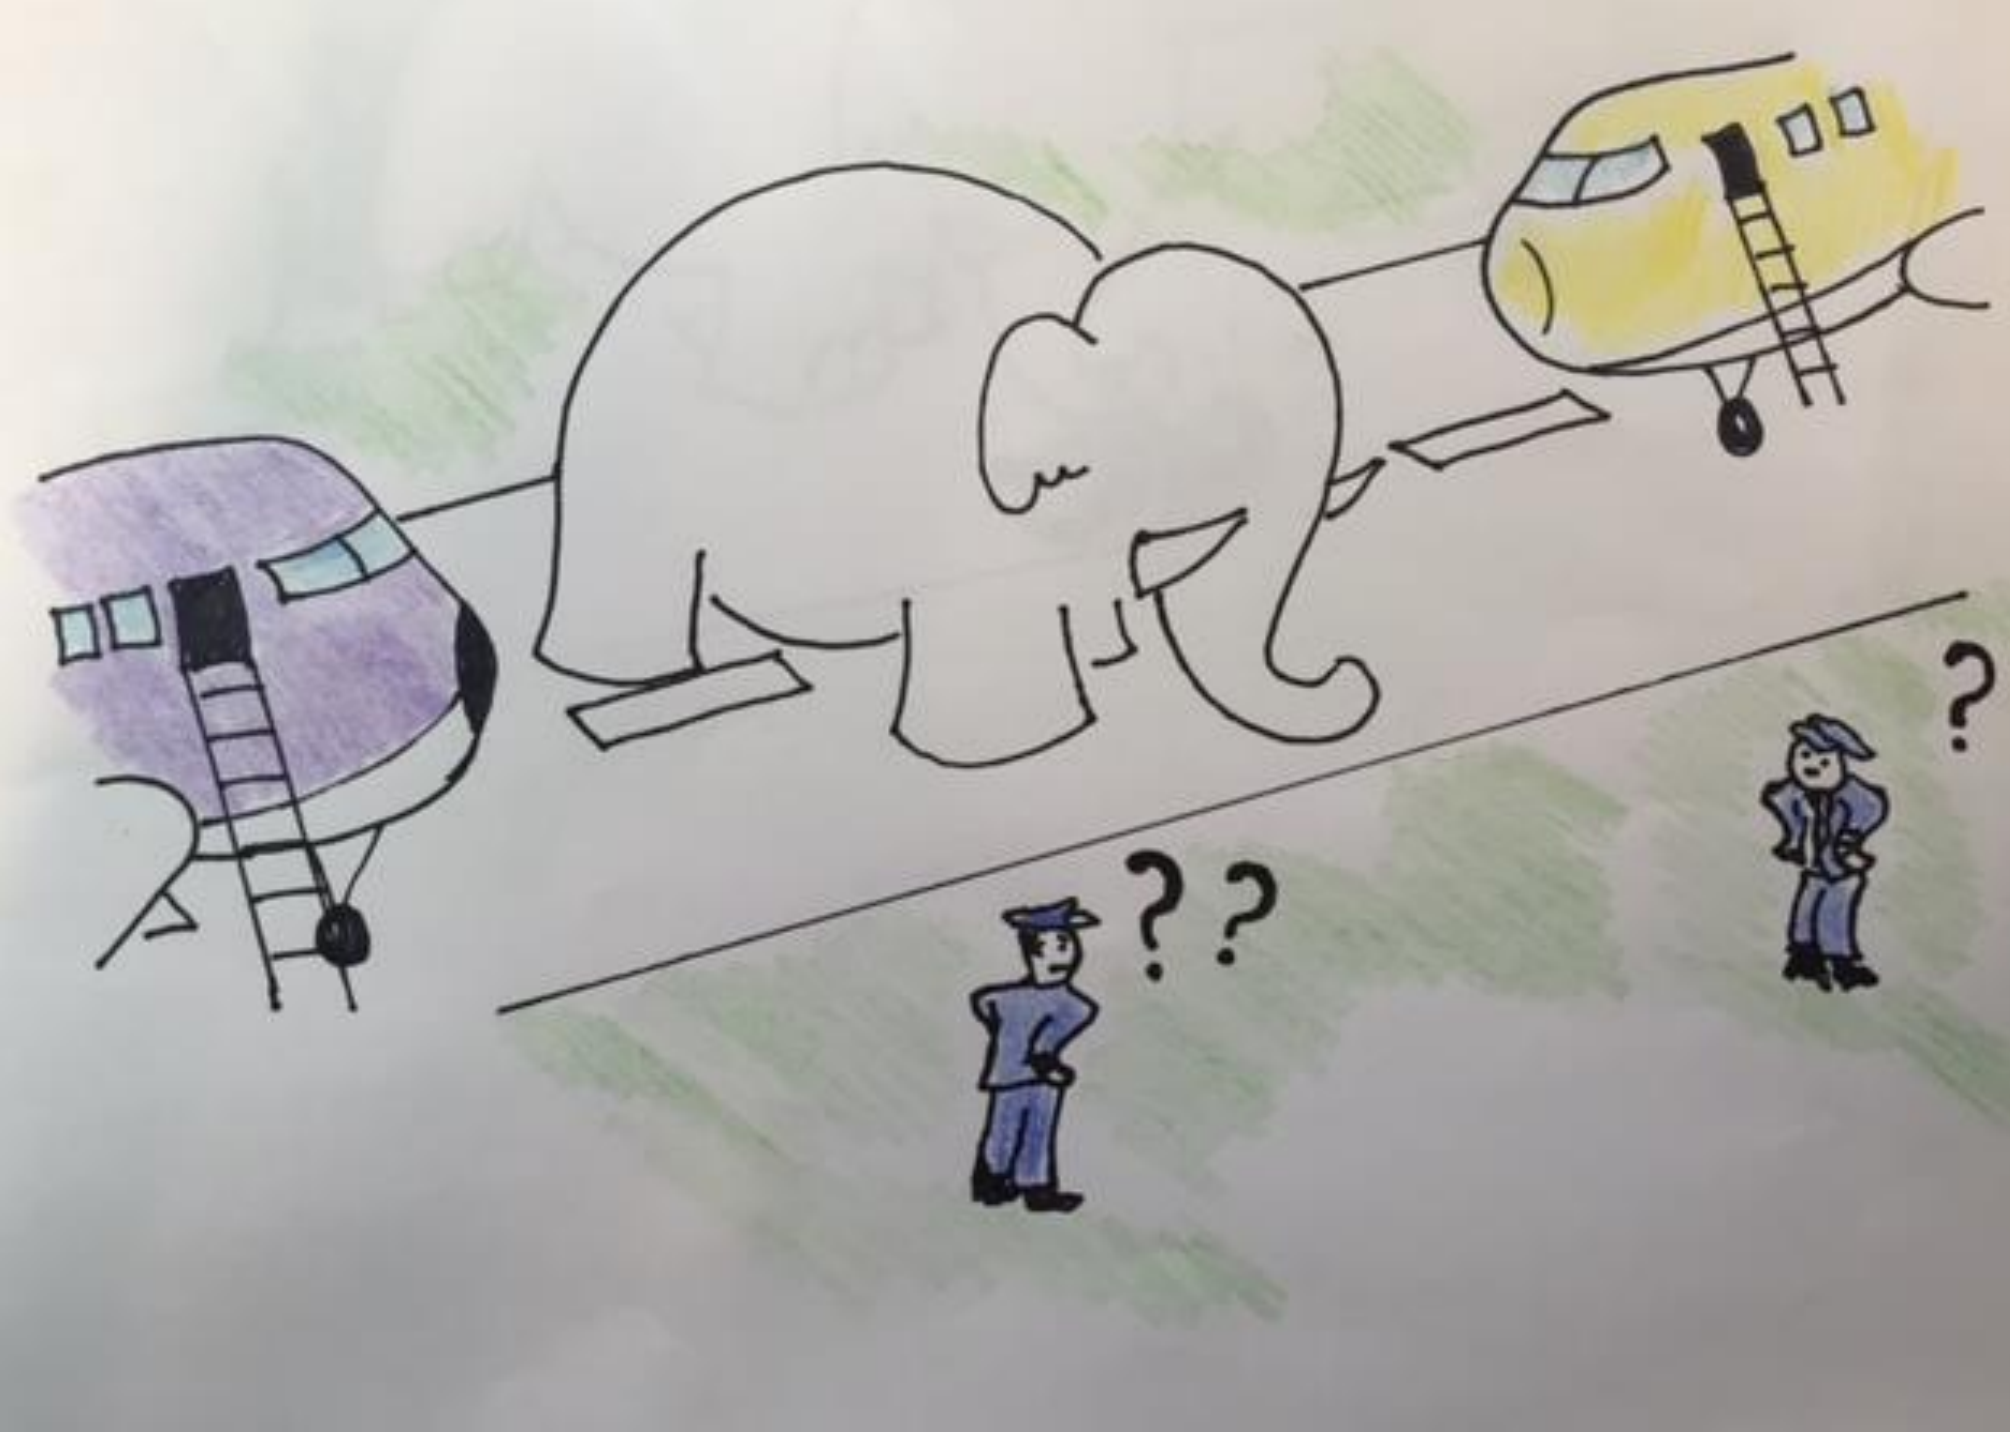

Problem to be solved.

No
coordination.
I think I can do it!

Communicate

Results orientated communication

Possible loss of interest

I still can't see the plane

Keep it simple

Thomas Dewar

1864-1930

Minds are like parachutes - they only function when open.
